Hello, I'm writing to you this way as I have failed to find on the internet, or from calls to your offices, to get a name and contact details. After chatting to a colleague of yours called Issy, a letter seemed the best way and would avoid any GDPR issues.

My name is Kevin Watts, before I retired I worked for Zurich in HR and a number of years back when Endsleigh and Zurich were part of the same Group, I actually did work with the Endsleigh HR team and SPARK, and helped deliver some training for SPARK members.

In my retirement I am working with the Alliance for Finance, www.alliance4finance.org, and other employee bodies like yourself based in the UK Finance Sector – Affiliates include: Phoenix Colleague Representation Forum, Abrdn, Nationwide Group Staff Body, Royal London, along with other employee bodies we are currently having chats with. Our work is about supporting, educating employee body and union members and providing a platform for UK Finance Workers.

Please go onto the website and have a look at what the group do in more detail. We have run some outstanding webinars on very topical subjects, with great speakers from the affiliates employers, government and specialists in their field.

The purpose of this letter is to highlight who we are, give you the website and ask you to reply by phone or email so we could have a conversation/ open a dialogue. And to be clear we're not a profit-making organisation and we are employer friendly.

I look forward to hearing from you, being able to answer any questions you have and share more about our work and how it might help you, your SPARK team and Endsleigh.

Yours faithfully

Kevin Watts
